SINCE 1889

St. Francis Hospital & Health Centers

For 80 years, St. Francis has delivered medical care to those in need, with competence and compassion. We've kept pace with the rapid advances in medical science, and we've never lost sight of the vision that brought us to central Indiana in the first place; a dedication to healing the body, mind and spirit.

St. Francis has expanded to better serve our growing community. The development of a new South Campus, with facilities for family practice physicians, diagnostic imaging, medical and radiation oncology, and emergency medicine, will soon feature the latest in OB services, including LDRP rooms and an intensive care nursery. Our cardiac care services at our main campus include state-of-the-art catheterization labs, and are second to none in the Midwest. Our facilities are often used as a world-wide demonstration site for advanced cardiac procedures.

We've introduced new services that are helping patients improve their health and peace of mind. OB Home Health Care offers families the professional nursing skills they find at St. Francis, in the comfort of their home. Mother and baby receive follow-up exams, to ensure everything is going well. Fathers aren't left out either, and we offer advice and answer questions about newborn care.

But what makes our professional care so special is our spirit of caring. A spirit that touches every patient, everyday. Talk with your physician about St. Francis, or call us about the many health programs and services we provide. We really do believe there's more to good care than good medicine.

St. Maur Monastery

Saint Maur Monastery was founded in 1947 by the Benedictine monks of Saint John's Abbey, Collegeville, Minn. The monks of Saint Maur have been doing for more than 40 years what Benedictine monks have done for more than 1500 years — pray, work and study.

Faithful to the contemplative vision of its founders, the primary commitment of the monastery remains prayer — to which "nothing is to be preferred," according to the Rule of Saint Benedict.

However, mindful of the needs of the Church and of God's people, the monks also involve themselves in the ministries of teaching, preaching and social concern. They strive through a practical love to be a corporate witness of the love of Christ.

The monks of Saint Maur have undertaken an apostolate stressing Christian hospitality. They share their facilities in charitable, religious and educational ways, including:

FOR AN ATHLETE, IT MEANS FINDING INSPIRATION IN YOUR TEAMMATES' FACES.

FOR A SCHOLAR, IT MEANS SHARING WHAT YOU LEARN.

FOR A LEADER, IT MEANS CULTIVATING THE TALENTS OF OTHERS.

Teamwork. At most colleges, little thought is given to it. But if today's students are to meet the world prepared to make real contributions, they'll need many skills—including the ability to work as part of a team.

Teamwork is an important part of a Saint Meinrad College education. You would expect to find it on our athletic fields. But you'll also see teamwork in our classrooms—where students forge partnerships for intellectual pursuits—and in the communities around us—where, each day, their teamwork and shared sense of purpose are a driving force behind our students' commitment to improving the quality of life for others.

Saint Meinrad College is a private, four-year undergraduate college for Catholic men. Its approach to educating the whole man is supported by a challenging liberal arts curriculum, opportunities for purposeful community service, a program devoted to the spiritual growth of its students, and a campus-wide commitment to developing Catholic leadership.

St. Elizabeth's

New Beginnings

Offering a full range of maternity, child care, parenting and adoptive placement programs and services.

The St. Elizabeth's difference

Since 1915, Indiana women have looked to St. Elizabeth's for the love, care and personal assistance so necessary during a crisis pregnancy. Today, our dedicated, caring staff helps turn despair into hope.

Everyone at St. Elizabeth's understands how a crisis pregnancy can create problems which call for some of the most significant decisions a woman will ever make. We treat neither the problems nor the decision lightly.

Our staff of social workers cares about women who come to us for help, not only during their pregnancy, but afterwards as well . . . as long as it takes for the mother and infant to begin their new lives together or apart. That's what we mean when we say we offer new beginnings.

Our number one concern is always the welfare of each woman and her child. We understand the pressure she may be facing from family, friends, or other members of the community . . . and often the feeling of being alone, of not knowing where to turn. To such women we offer not only our programs and services but our care and friendship as well. That's the St. Elizabeth's difference!

St. Elizabeth's is a United Way agency operating under the auspices of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. We serve all pregnant women and single mothers regardless of race, age, creed, marital status, or ability to pay.

Maternity and child care programs

St. Elizabeth's is a licensed child placing agency. Our programs and services usually begin while a woman is pregnant and often uncertain about what she should do.

We offer complete prenatal care to promote a healthy pregnancy and safe delivery . . . postnatal care for both mother and child, including medical care for as long as necessary . . . a loving supportive residential environment . . . extensive one-to-one professional counseling on an ongoing basis . . . various self-help programs designed to enhance self-image through group discussion and activities . . . educational and vocational assistance to help clients prepare to take their rightful place in society as productive citizens . . . various outreach services to help families of pregnant women accept rather than reject them . . . and much more!

arenting programs

Today, more and more adolescent mothers choose to parent their infants rather than place them for adoption. This decision catapults them into an adult world filled with adult responsibilities. Our professional staff fully supports the right of each client to make her own decision concerning her future and that of her child. But without realistic planning for the future, a decision to parent can have disastrous consequences. That's why we offer our Parent And Child Together (PACT) program.

This program helps young mothers to become self-sufficient, knowledgeable, responsible single parents. All PACT participants receive individual and family counseling, as well as training in parenting and life skills. PACT enables young mothers to complete their education and take their place in the work force. In addition, PACT offers residential placement and child care services to mothers and infants who are wards of the Court. Mothers must be under the age of 18 to qualify for residential placement.

doptive placement programs

The most caring and responsible choice a mother sometimes can make is to release her child for adoption. In such cases, we counsel the mother throughout her pregnancy and after delivery place her baby in an adoptive home.

Some new mothers need additional time after delivery to make a stress-free decision whether to parent or place for adoption. Our Tender Care program is especially helpful for these mothers and her infants. It provides short-term care for newborns by placing them in licensed homes. Volunteer parents give each child love and quality care until the baby is placed in a permanent home, either with their birth parent, or with adoptive parents.

All potential adoptive families participate in an adoptive study. St. Elizabeth's also offers both birth and adoptive parents the opportunity to help plan their adoptive placement. Choices range from traditional to open adoptive services.

For more than a century, St. Vincent and Community Hospitals have met the health care needs of Indiana residents through disease prevention and wellness programs. Today, the St. Vincent-Community Health Network is dedicated to building healthier communities by meeting the social, spiritual and emotional needs of those we serve.

I S A C T I V E T O D A Y

"BABE" (Beds and Britches, Etc.) is a Network-supported program providing pregnant mothers an incentive for receiving prenatal care and education to help reduce the infant mortality rate in high-risk areas throughout the Indianapolis area.

Hometowne House is yet another example of the Network's dedication to this cause. By creating a healthier environment, the Network is advocating for better housing and helping people in their neighborhood obtain their basic needs, thus reducing the stress that affects their health.

Archdiocese of Indianapolis

Mission Statement

Logo

This symbol, or logogram, for the Church in central and southern Indiana was commissioned by Archbishop Daniel M. Buechlein. He asked Benedictine Father Eric Lies, an artist-calligrapher of Saint Meinrad Archabbey, to fashion a new symbol that would capture the diversity found in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.

Father Eric, working with Saint Meinrad seminarian David Reinhart, created a graphically strong design with four stylized "views" of the archdiocese in each quadrant of a cross: an urban landscape, a small town, a farm, and open, hilly countryside. All four vistas were held together in unity by the cross, which touched and embraced each of them.

When Jane Lee, director of publications and graphics for the archdiocese, began working with the design, she added an arched line around the design and thus fashioned a stained-glass window whose four panes give the viewer four glimpses of our local Church.

Blue, which has been identified with the archdiocese at least since its sesquicentennial celebration, was chosen as the "official" color for the logo when it is not printed in black. This particular shade of blue approximates the blue color found in the stained-glass windows of the cathedral church.

We, the Church in central and southern Indiana, called to faith and salvation in Jesus Christ in the Roman Catholic tradition, strive to live the Gospel by:

- worshipping God in word and sacrament
- learning, teaching, and sharing our faith
- serving human needs.

We commit ourselves to generosity and to the responsible use of our spiritual and material resources.

Values

- Prayer and spiritual growth
- Lifelong learning and sharing our faith
- Parish and family, the individual and community
- Compassion and respect for human life and all creation
- Justice and consistent moral standards
- Pro-active leadership and shared responsibility
- Vital presence in urban, suburban, and rural neighborhoods
- Stewardship

Our Goals for Parish and Archdiocesan Ministry

- Goal 1 Foster spiritual and sacramental life
- Goal 2 Teach and share Catholic beliefs, traditions, and values
- Goal 3 Provide for the pastoral and leadership needs of the people of the Archdiocese
- Goal 4 Work for peace and social justice through service and advocacy
- Goal 5 Promote generous sharing and responsible use of all human and material resources

Priorities for 1995-96

1. Define roles and responsibilities of deans and deanery structure.
2. Strengthen relationships between parish leadership and Catholic Center leadership.
3. Mainstream multicultural ministries.
4. Strengthen marriage enrichment programs.
5. Expand initiatives for vocational recruitment.
6. Complete a religious education strategic plan.
7. Prepare for an archdiocesan capital campaign.

The Archdiocese of Indianapolis

Archdiocese of Indianapolis

The Province of Indianapolis

General History

The Diocese of Vincennes — now the Archdiocese of Indianapolis — was established by Pope Gregory XVI on May 6, 1834. The territory then comprised the entire state of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois. The latter was separated from the Diocese of Vincennes upon the establishment of the Diocese of Chicago, November 28, 1843.

By decree of Pope Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the state became the Diocese of Fort Wayne, the boundaries being that part of the state north of the south lines of Fountain, Montgomery, Boone, Hamilton, Madison, Delaware, Randolph, and Warren counties. The remaining southern half of the state made up the Diocese of Vincennes, embracing 50 counties. It covered an area of 18,479 square miles extending from the north line of Marion and contiguous counties to the Ohio River and from Illinois on the west to Ohio on the east.

The second bishop of Vincennes was permitted by apostolic brief to establish his residence at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette, or Indianapolis; Vincennes was, however, to remain the see city. This permission, with the subtraction of Lafayette, was renewed to the fourth bishop.

Upon his appointment, the fifth bishop was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, although the site of the cathedral and title of the see were continued at Vincennes. By apostolic brief dated March 28, 1898, the title of the diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the episcopal see in the city of Indianapolis. By the same brief, the patron of the diocese was to remain St. Francis Xavier, the title of the Old Cathedral at Vincennes.

The Apostolic Decree of His Holiness Pope Pius XII, creating the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, was issued October 21, 1944. On December 19, 1944, by executorial decree of the papal delegate, the Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, apostolic delegate to the United States, the papal decree of Pope Pius XII was solemnly proclaimed in Saints Peter and Paul Cathedral, elevating Indianapolis to the status of an archdiocese, the state of Indiana becoming the metropolitan area. The dioceses of Evansville and Lafayette-in-Indiana were created by the same decree and, along with the Diocese of Fort Wayne, made suffragan sees of Indianapolis. Upon establishment of the Diocese of Gary on February 25, 1957, it too became a suffragan see.

Parish Life Coordinators

In the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, in accord with the canon law of the Catholic Church, we have developed a pastoral leadership position that we call parish life coordinator. The parish life coordinator is a lay person who has the pastoral care of a parish or mission entrusted to him or her. This lay person works with a priest moderator and a priest minister to provide pastoral and sacramental care to the parish.

The parish life coordinator is responsible for the day-to-day pastoral care, liturgical life, faith development, social services, and administration of the parish. These pastoral responsibilities are assisted by a priest moderator, who serves as a mentor and guide for the parish life coordinator. The priest moderator also supervises and advises the parish life coordinator on matters of administration and parish life.

Recognizing that the administration of the sacraments requires the ministry of an ordained priest, a priest-minister is assigned as the sacramental minister and coworker with the parish life coordinator.

Chaplaincies

Besides staffing parishes and schools in the Archdiocese, the local Church has always recognized its responsibilities to care for the spiritual needs of those who avail themselves of other institutions located within the Archdiocese, both those that are an integral part of the Church and those of the secular society. In particular, the Archdiocese provides chaplains for the Newman Centers, hospitals, homes for the aged, and other public institutions. These chaplains are listed below:

Newman Centers

In addition to the Catholic colleges within the Archdiocese (see the "Educational Institutions" section), there are 10 other universities or colleges, either public or private. Newman Centers on these campuses care for the spiritual needs of the Catholic students and faculty members of those colleges.

Educational Institutions

Education is an extremely important part of the Catholic Church in the Indianapolis Archdiocese. Elementary schools are included in the "Parishes" section. This section contains information about the seminaries, colleges, high schools, and deanery centers in the Archdiocese.

Seminaries

Saint Meinrad Seminary, which educates students from many dioceses throughout the United States, is composed of a college of liberal arts and a school of theology. The school of theology offers four years of graduate-level theological studies for men preparing for priesthood, three two-year graduate-level theological degrees for lay ministry students, and sabbatical opportunities of varying length and content. The college offers undergraduate degrees in seven majors. The schools are owned and operated by Saint Meinrad Archabbey, a community of Benedictine monks.

Goal.

An end toward which effort is directed. A goal is important to have.

A mark to reach for. And if you share your goal with someone else, they can help you reach it. In fact, entire communities can have a goal that they work together to achieve.

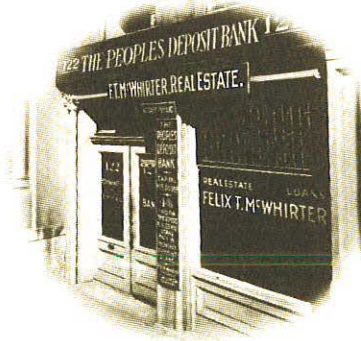

NBD has made it our goal to be the best bank we can be. And helping you reach your goals is one way we aim to do that.

The right bank can make a difference.®

ADAPTING TECHNOLOGY TO YOUR INFORMATION NEEDS

Doing more with less is a standard today. That means making hard decisions and fully leveraging today's information management resources.

Using market-leading application packages or developing a custom solution with common programs (e.g. LOTUS, EXCEL, DataEase, Paradox) as well as the more robust database languages (e.g. FOCUS, ORACLE, EXPRESS) on platforms from PCs to mainframes, SIM helps solve immediate problems and prepares you for continuous improvement.

We can also recommend and install the right hardware as well as provide training to make the transition smooth.

For strategic management of your information, think . . .

SIM is proud to provide information management services to the Archdiocese and several of its agencies.
